

The Daily Courant.

Monday, October 19. 1702.

THE Affairs of Poland are variously represented, according to the different Advices from that Kingdom: We have already given the freshest News from thence that came by the way of Holland: The last Letters from Warsaw by the way of France, bring what follows.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Oct. 14.

Warsaw, September 18.

THE King of Poland has caus'd a Bridge to be laid over the Vistula, for his Cavalry to pass that River; but 'tis uncertain yet whether they will march towards Prussia or Lithuania. His Army is compos'd of twelve Regiments of Foot, and twelve of Horse, amounting to about 15000 Men. Since his Majesty's arrival we learn, that in the Diet of the Nobility held near Sandomir, a General Association was agreed on, the Deputies binding themselves by Oath to maintain the King and the Liberty of their Country: They resolv'd likewise that the Army of the Republick should be immediately paid, and augmented to 30000 Men: That each Palatinate should choose two Plenipotentiaries to treat of a Peace, with the Chancellors of Poland and Lithuania, and that the Cardinal Primate should preside in that Assembly: That an Embassy should be sent to the King of Sweden, viz. one Senator and three Gentlemen, to offer him the Mediation of the Republick: That if he should accept of it, the Army should without delay be settled on the same foot to which it was reduc'd after the last War; and that the Saxon Troops should be sent back into Germany: That if the King of Sweden should refuse to accept of the Mediation of the Republick, then the Army of the Crown being increas'd to 30000 Men should observe the Swedish Army: The Saxon Troops should be oblig'd to make War on the Territories of the King of Sweden; and his Polish Majesty, with the Advice of the Cardinal Primate, and of the Chancellors and Plenipotentiaries, should send Envoys to the King of Denmark, the Elector of Brandenburg, and the Czar of Muscovy, to invite them to enter with him into a League Offensive against Sweden, on condition that those Princes should attack such Dominions of the King of Sweden as lye most expos'd to them. We are assur'd that the King of Sweden shews himself inclin'd to Peace; but that he will not suffer the Czar to be included in it, that he may take revenge on him for the Ravages and Cruelties which the Muscovites have already, and continue to commit in Livonia. The King of Sweden is still near Cracow, where he seems resolv'd to take his Winter-quarters; to which end he has given Orders for laying up all the Provisions that can be got: But the Country thereabouts is so ruin'd, that he will hardly find enough for his Subsistence. He has taken a review of the Troops that are come to him out of Pomerania, which he found in very good order, and with them his Army is increas'd to 25000 Men, all gallant Troops. Mean time the Cossacks and Walachians continue to make Incursions on all sides; and a great number of Robbers are dispers'd into several Provinces of this Kingdom, who do a great deal of Mischief, killing and robbing all they meet with. 'Tis confirm'd that a Party of Cossacks, commanded by one Samus, have revolted from the Poles. There are great Divisions still among the Nobles, particularly among those of Great Poland, who have got leave of the King to hold a General Diet on Horseback near this City.

Hamburg, Sept. 29. 'Tis advis'd that there is a Difference newly risen between the Dukes of Mecklenburg-Swerin and Strelits; that the former has recall'd his Regiment of Foot which he had sent towards the Upper Rhine, and that he had written to the King of the Romans, that if he could not quickly come to an Accommodation with the Duke of Strelits, he should be oblig'd to recall his Regiment of Horse likewise that is in the Imperial Army. Letters from Livonia confirm that the Muscovites continue to Ravage and Burn the Country, and to Massacre or carry away all the Inhabitants: That having surpriz'd the little Town of Walmer, they put to the Sword 300 of the Militia that were garrison'd in it: That they have taken a Gentleman's Castle which had held out against them for above a Year, tho' on the edge of their Frontiers; making the Gentleman a Prisoner, and killing 300 Peasants who defended it.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Oct. 17.

Hague, Oct. 16. The States having notified the taking of Venlo, Stevenswart and Ruremond, to the Foreign Ministers that are resident in this Court, they have paid their Compliments of Congratulation to the President of the Assembly of their High Mightinesses. Letters from Maestricht and other places, confirm the Retreat of the Marshal de Boufflers to Borghworm. The Imperial, English, and other Foreign Ministers, were in Conference this Morning with the Envoy of the King of Poland.

London, October 19. The Dutchess of Richmond who dyed last week, left in her Will 506 l. a piece to three Ladies abroad, on condition to conform themselves to the present Establishment; and her Real Estate, with 16000 Guineas, to her Nephew Mr. Stuart.

There are Two Mails wanting from Holland, besides that of Friday last.

†† Left on Monday the 28th of September 1702. from Mr. Goodlad's in Southampton-street in Bloomsbury-square, a little Lap-dog, White and Brown Spots, a short Nose, a Blaze on his Forehead, Brown on one side of his Mouth, a short Tail white on the end. Whoever brings him to Mr. Goodlad's aforesaid, or to the Roe-Buck and Hole in the Wall in Kings-gate-street by Red-Lion-Square, shall have a Guinea Reward.

* * * At the New Theatre in Little-Lincolns-Inn-Fields, on Wednesday next being the 21st of October, will be presented the last New Comedy, call'd, The Beau's Duel, or, A Soldier for the Ladies. With the Addition of a New Scene, and a new Prologue and Epilogue, with a Whimsical Song Sung by Mr. Pack. To-morrow will be publish'd.

THE Parliamentary Original and Rights of the Lower House of Convocation cleared, and the Evidences of its Separation from the Upper House produced on several Heads; particularly in the Point of making Separate Applications [as a Distinct Body of Men] to other Bodies or Persons; In pursuance of an Argument for the Power of the Lower House to adjourn it self. To which is added a Preface, giving an Account of the Dishonest Methods of answering Books, taken up by the chief Asserter of the Archbishop's Sole Power, in his late pretended Review of the Case of the Schedule. Printed for T. Bennet at the Half Moon in St. Paul's Church-yard.

ADVERTISEMENT.

THE Life of William the Third, late King of England, and Prince of Orange, containing an Account of his Family, Birth, Education, Accession to the Dignity of Stadtholder and Captain General of Holland: His Marriage, Expedition to England, and the various Steps by which he and his Princess ascended the Throne. With the History of his Reign, Enterprizes and Conduct, in Peace or War. And a Relation of his Will, Death, and Funeral, intermix'd with many Original Papers, Letters, Memoirs, his publick Speeches, Declarations, Treaties and Alliances, most of which never before printed, as his Speech to the States, how Matters should be manag'd in case he miscarry'd when he came for England. The Names of those for and against making him King in the Conventions. A particular of the Glencoe Businels. With near a hundred more never yet publish'd. Illustrated with 40 Cuts, as Medals, &c. Printed for J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard. In one Vol. 8vo. price 6 s. Where may be had the Life of the late King James. In 8vo. price 5 s.

THE Church of Rome no Guide in Matters of Faith: In answer to a late Letter from a Nephew to his Uncle, containing the Reasons why He became a Roman Catholick, and why he now declines any farther Disputes, or Contests about Matters of Religion. By William Wake D. D. and Dean of Exeter. Printed for Richard Sare at Grays-Inn Gate in Holborn. Price 6 d.

THE Court and Country Cook: Giving new and plain Directions how to order all manner of Entertainments, and the best sort of the most exquisite A-la-mode Ragoes. Together with new Instructions for Confectioners. Shewing how to Preserve all sorts of Fruits, as well dry as liquid: Also, how to make divers Sugar-works, and other fine Pieces of Curiosity: How to set out a Desert, or Banquet of Sweet-meats to the best advantage; and how to prepare several sorts of Liquors, that are proper for every Season of the Year. A Work more especially necessary for Stewards, Clerks of the Kitchen, Confectioners, Butlers, and other Officers, and all of great use in private Families. Faithfully translated out of French into English by J. K. Printed for A. and J. Churchill, at the Black Swan in Pater-Noster-Row.

PHILOSOPHICAL Transactions, No. 280. for the Months of July and August, 1702. Publish'd by Dr. H. Sloane S.R.S. Containing, I. Dr. Leigh's Account of strange Epileptick Fits. II. Mr. William Comper's Account of divers Schemes of the Arteries and Veins of Human Bodies, given to the Royal Society by J. Evelyn Esq; with Chirurgical Observations and large Figures after the Life. III. Mr. Cunningham's Account of his Voyage to China. IV. Mr. Young's Letter concerning the Internal Use of Cantharides, &c. Printed for S. Smith and B. Walford in St. Paul's Church-Yard.

A New Family-Book: Or, the True Interest of Families. Being Directions to Parents and Children, and to those who are instead of Parents, shewing them their several Duties, and how they may be happy in one another. With Prayers for Families and Children, Graces before and after Meat. As also a Discourse about the right way of improving our time. By J. Kirkwood, Rector of Astwick in Bedfordshire. With a Preface Recommendatory, by Dr. Horneck. The Second Edition corrected and much enlarg'd. Printed for J. Taylor, at the Ship in St. Paul's Church-yard.

The Artificial Clock-maker. A Treatise of Watch and Clock-work. Wherein the Art of Calculating Numbers for most sorts of Movements is explained, to the Capacity of the Unlearned. Also the History of Watch and Clock-work, both Ancient and Modern. With other Useful Matters never before publish'd. The Second Edition Enlarged. To which is added a Supplement, containing, 1. The Anatomy of a Watch and Clock. 2. Monsieur Romer's Satellite-Instrument, with Observations concerning the Calculation of the Eclipses of Jupiter's Satellites, and to find the Longitude by them. 3. A nice way to correct Pendulum Watches. 4. M. Flamsteed's Equation Tables. 5. To find a Meridian-Line, for the Governing of Watches, and other Uses. 6. To make a Telescope to keep a Watch by the Fixed Stars. By W. D. M.A. Printed for J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard. Price 1 s. 6 d.

The Plain Man's Preservative from the Error of the Anabaptists; shewing the Professors of the Establish'd Religion How they may Defend the Baptism they Received in their Infancy against them. Price 6 d.

A Method of Serving God in Private for every Day in the Week. Together with Rules and Devotions, to be used before, at, and after the Sacrament. Price 3 d. Both Printed for John Wyat at the Rose in St. Paul's Church-yard.

THE Evangelical History: Or the Life of our Blessed Saviour Jesus Christ, comprehensively and plainly related, with Practical Inferences and Discourses thereupon; and a large Practical Introduction by way of Preface. Written in French by L. du Pin, and English'd by a Divine of the Church of England. The Second Edition, adorn'd with Copper Cuts. Printed for Tim. Childe at the White in St. Paul's Church-yard.

AN Answer to a Book, Entituled, A Short and Plain Way to the Faith and Church. Composed many Years since by Richard Huddleston, of the English Congregation of the Order of St. Benedict: And now publish'd by his Nephew John Huddleston, of the same Congregation, in order to gain Profelytes to the Church of Rome. Being a Necessary Preservative for all Persons against Popery. By Samuel Grescome, a Priest of the Church of England. Printed for Edw. Poole in Cornhill, and G. Sawbridge in Little Britain.